Hi & Merry Christmas,

The gypsy Reisners have moved again. We still live part-time in Florida but have sold our Marietta house and bought a home in Braselton, Georgia. For those of you outside Georgia, this means that we're still in the Atlanta area but farther north of the city in a more rural area. We live on a golf course so Bob spends a lot of time playing golf, oftentimes with Josh, Brian and Dave. The golf course has proved to be very popular with the male members of our family. As for me, I have started getting involved in our new community, doing some volunteer work and playing bridge.

Kristina & Dave, Ally (now 2-1/2-years-old) and their new addition Andrew Joseph have relocated to Charlotte, North Carolina, where Dave works for Bank of America. I spent two weeks with them in June when Andrew was born and we try to make the three-hour trek to their house as often as possible but we miss them being closer.

On the other hand, Meg, Bri, Dean & Casey (the dog) have moved in with us temporarily while their new house is being built. Fourteen-month-old Dean is at an adorable age and we are really enjoying watching him grow and change almost daily. We're thankful that their new house is only about 10 miles from ours, so we'll continue to see them frequently even after they move.

Because I now do some paperwork for Josh (Subway related) and because he likes playing golf with Bob, we still see him quite a bit too even though we're a little further from him than before.

I am enclosing some family photos. Yes, we have turned into doting grandparents.

Hoping this finds you well and happy. Have a wonderful holiday.

Love,
Elaine
