Bob and I would like to wish you all a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. We hope this letter finds you all healthy and happy.

The Subways have continued to do well and we are still retired. As usual we had a busy year. I have added mahjong to my list of activities. And lots of travel including Naples Florida and many trips to NY. And Bob and I spent 3 weeks in China! It was a great experience, much fun and we learned a lot.

We have 6 beautiful grandchildren who all live nearby so there is never a dull moment. We have also been blessed with a new grandniece Amelia (Ashley & Chris) and twin grandnephews Alvin and Davis (Alvin & Allison) who also live in the Atlanta area.

My Dad who is 85, was able to visit twice this year in Amelia Island and Atlanta and even got to attend baby Amelia's (named after my Mom) christening.

Two of my nieces were married this year. Since Katie's wedding was in June and school was out we turned it into a road trip myself, Kristina, Megan and the oldest 4 kids. We visited NYC . Seeing the Statue of Liberty, FAO Schwartz, Busch Gardens in VA as well as a very fun wedding made it a memorable trip. In NYC, a hotel error got us a night in a 2 story Penthouse.

My other niece Molly had a beautiful wedding in NY just before Thanksgiving. Granddaughter Elle got to be the flower girl. Aunt Jane, with the help of Julie and Art, got to visit from Denver. Bob, I and Kristina took the opportunity to visit NYC including a show.

We celebrated the first birthday of our youngest grandchild Grady on Sunday. He is starting to walk and is a very busy little guy. It is fun to watch them change.

We celebrated Thanksgiving at the beach this year, a first, with Megan and Kristina and their families and will be in GA for Christmas. Hopefully we will bring in the New Year with Janie and Paul in Amelia Island which has become our new tradition. Jan 8 will find us in Orlando to watch Kristina in her first marathon!

Other good news, my roommate from nursing school, Janet, found me on the internet and we have reunited after 30+ years! (at least on the computer).
